It takes an endless
amount of history to make
even a little tradition.
-Henry James-

Every tradition grows ever more venerable—the more remote is its origin, the more confused that origin is . . .

The reverence due to it increases
from generation to generation.
The tradition finally becomes holy and
inspires awe.
-Friedrich
Wilhelm
Nietzsche-

No, my friends, I go (always other things being equal) for the man who inherits family traditions . . .

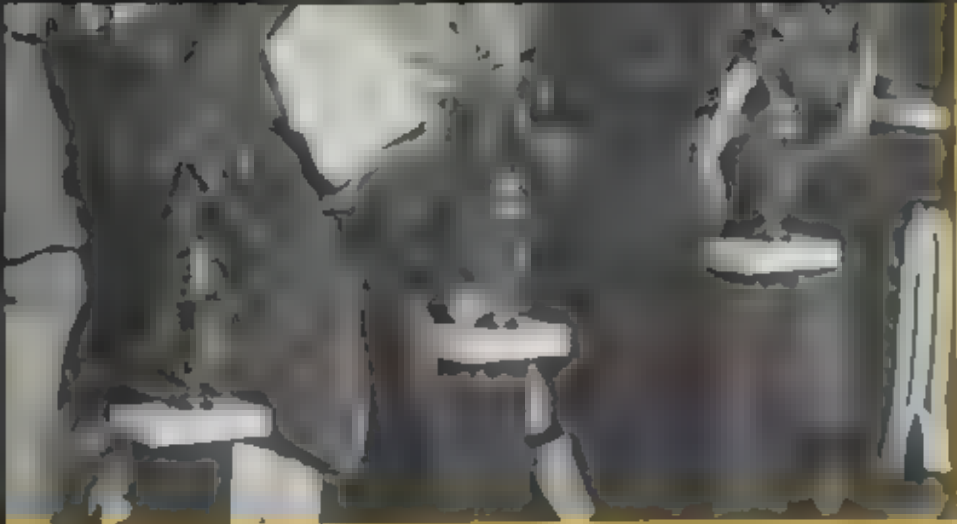

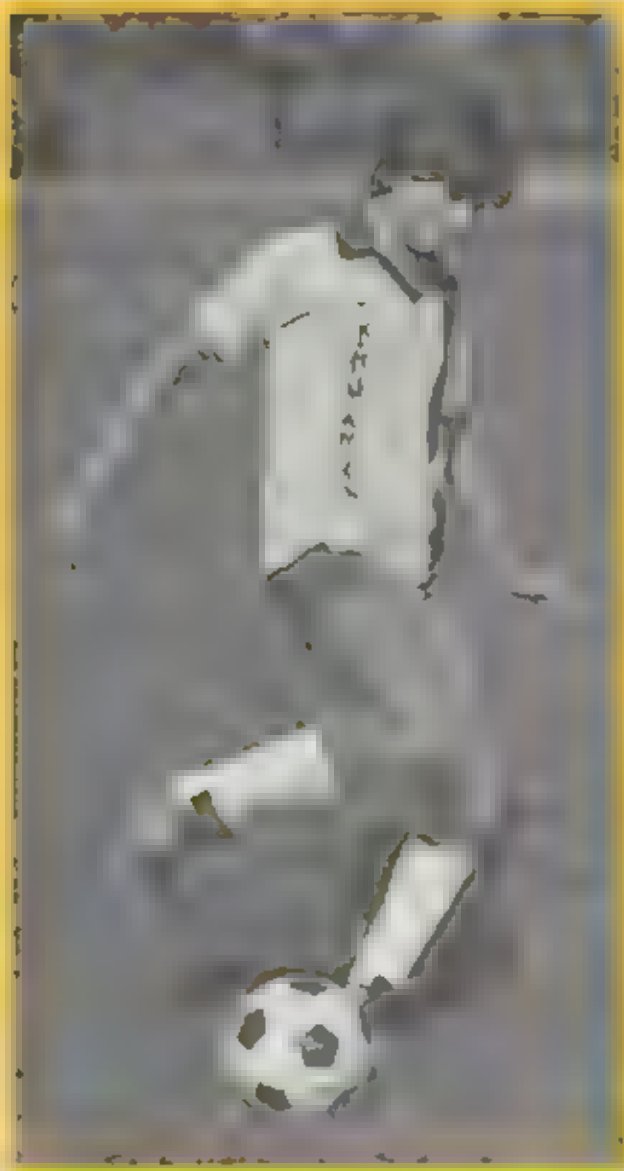

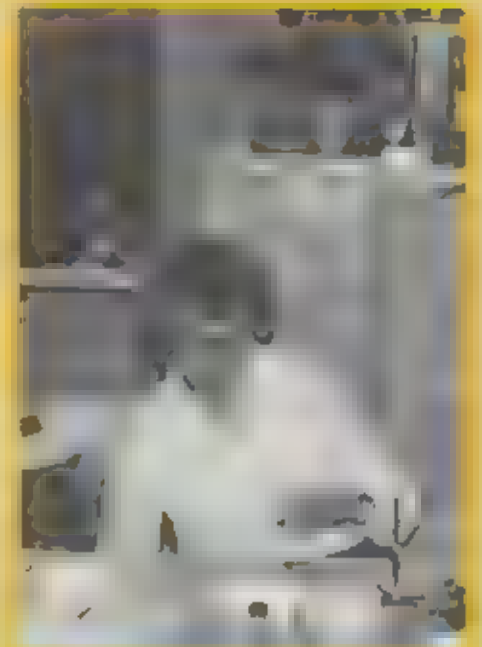

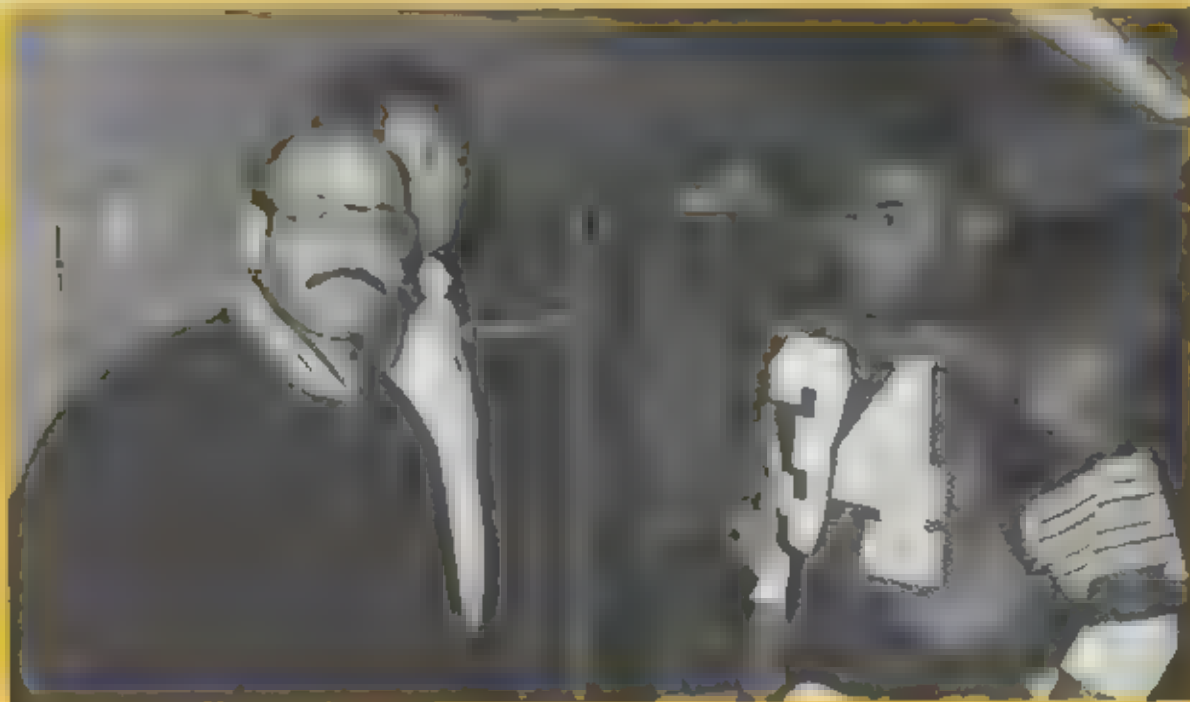

and the cumulative humanities of at least four or five generations
-O.W. Holmes-

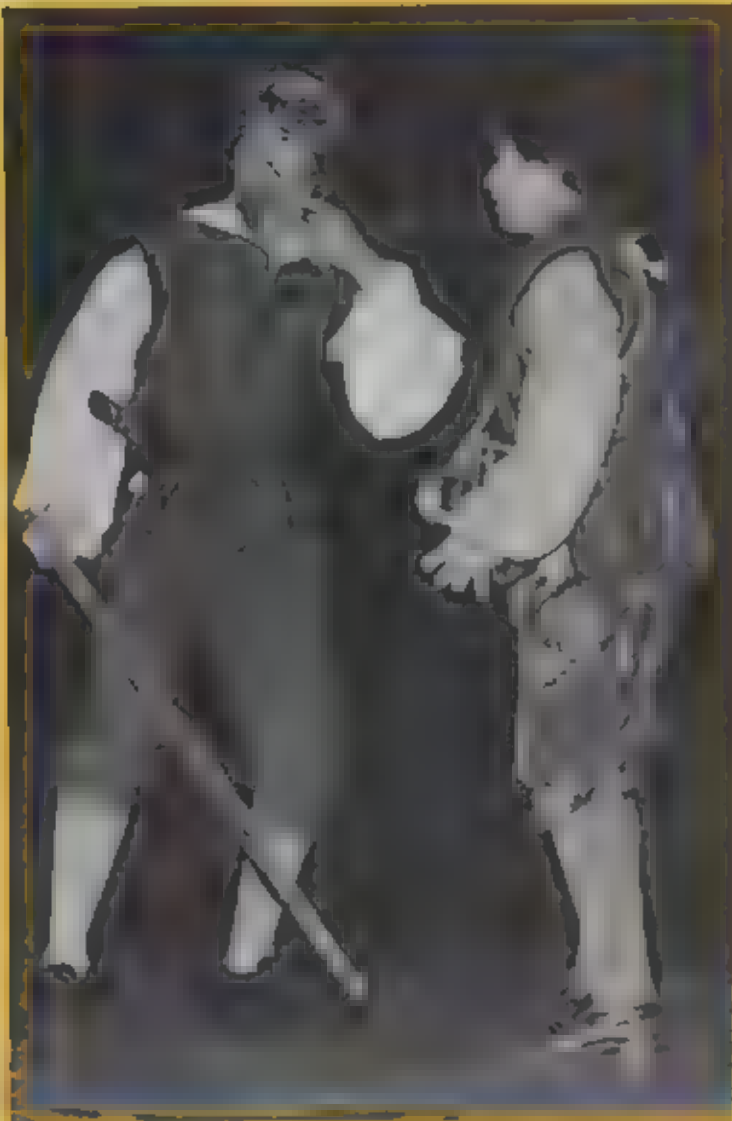

-Thou shalt not covet; but tradition approves all forms of competition.
-Arthur Hugh Clough-

BEAT NORTH

-Tradition is but a meteor,
which, if it once falls, cannot
be rekindled
-Samuel Johnson-

Tradition never needing saving: it somehow has
a way for looking out for itself

and if it has not the seeds
of perennial generation it
had better die
-Henry Rankin Poore-

-Tradition does not mean that the living are dead but
that the dead are alive
-Gilbert Kieth Chesterton-

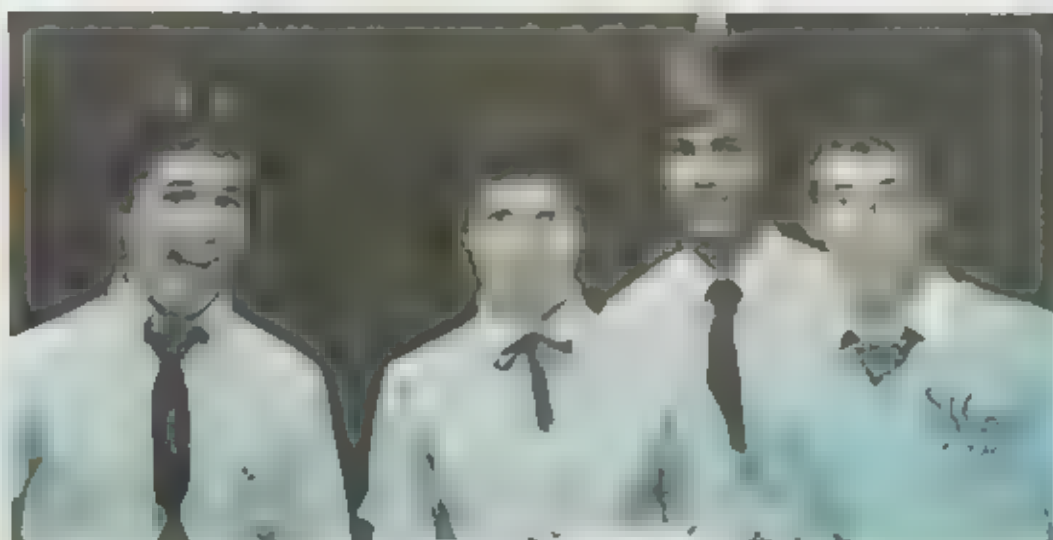

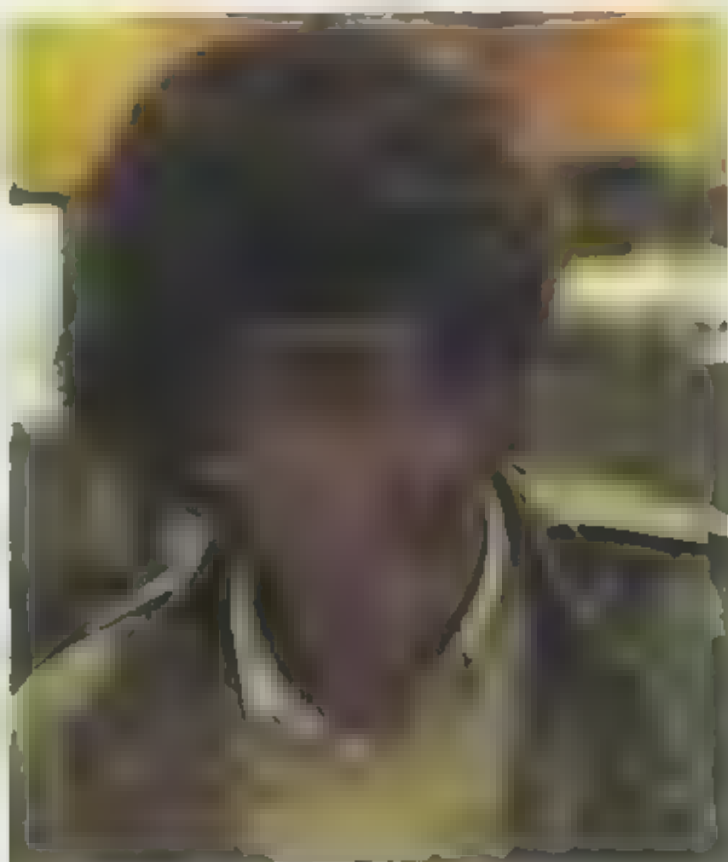

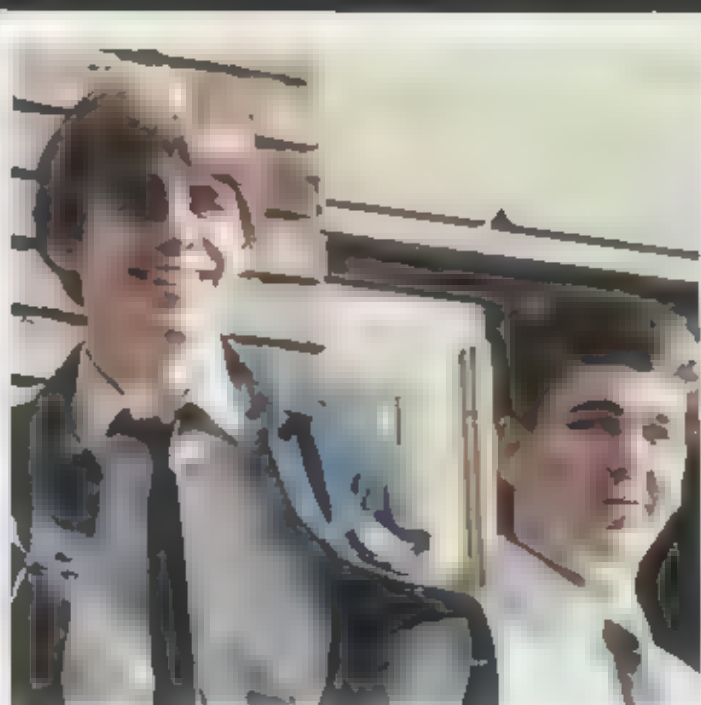

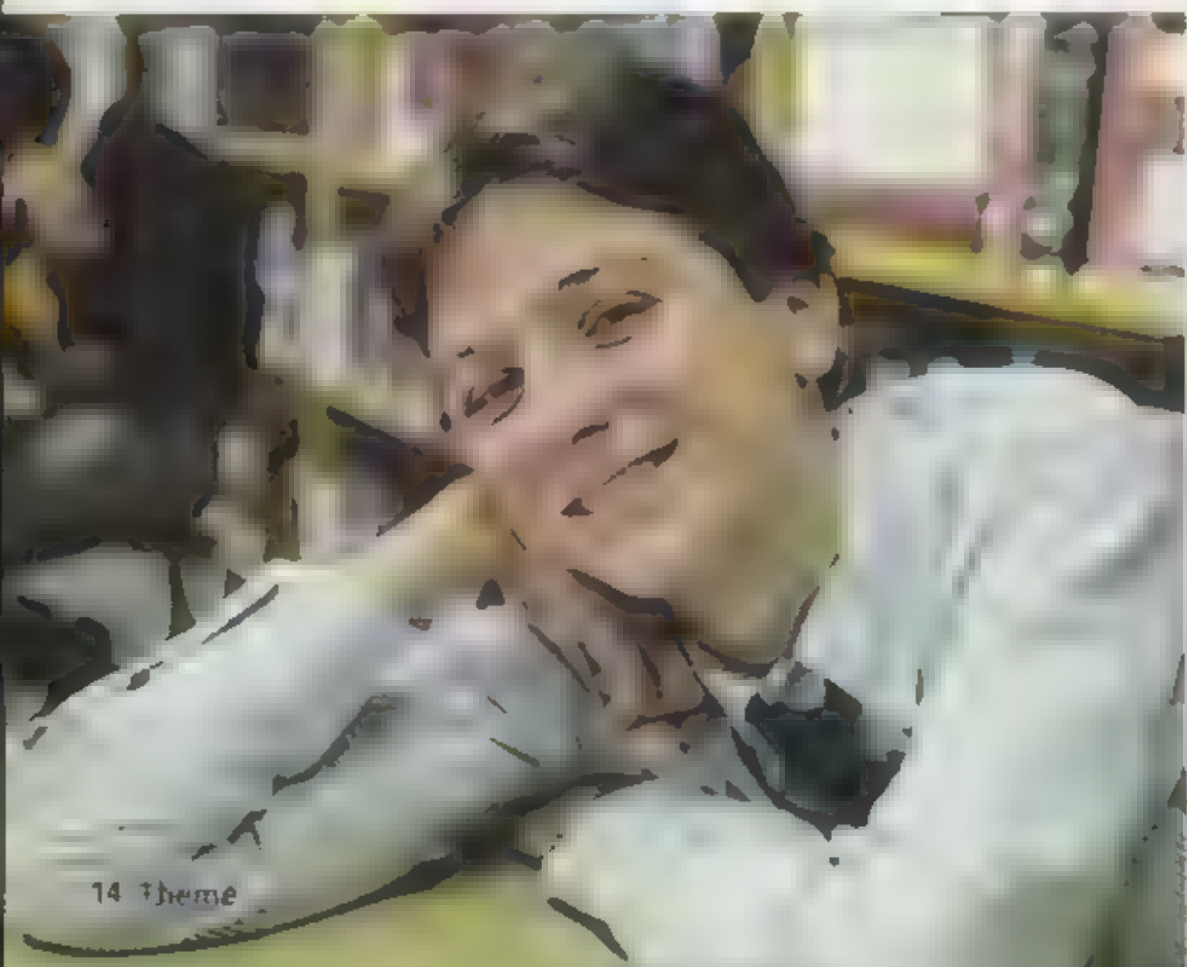

To a significant degree people express their traditions through their local organizations
-Saul David Alinsky-

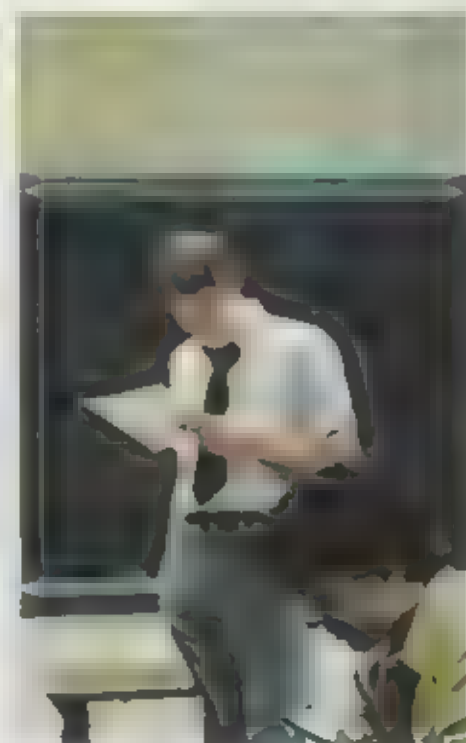

What an enormous magnifier is tradition! How a thing grows in the human memory and in the human imagination

when love, worship,
and all that lies in the human heart, is there to encourage it
-Thomas Carlyle-

OUR NEW BISHOP . . .

Bishop Anthony J. Bevilacqua was born in Brooklyn, New York, June 17, 1923

After attending Cathedral High School, Cathedral College in Brooklyn, and Immaculate Conception Seminary in Huntington, New York, Bishop Bevilacqua was ordained for the Diocese of Brooklyn at Saint James Cathedral on June 11, 1949

Bishop Bevilacqua studied and received a Doctorate in Canon Law from Gregorian University, Rome, Italy, in 1956. A Master's Degree in Political Science from Columbia University, New York, in 1962, and a Doctorate in Civil Law from Saint John's University Law School in 1975, was followed with admission to the Bar of New York State in 1976

Besides Pastoral duties, Bishop Bevilacqua was professor of History at Cathedral College in Brooklyn from 1950 to 1953. He also worked in the Tribunal of the Diocese of Brooklyn from 1957 until 1965 when he was appointed Vice-Chancellor. His presence was also felt in the Diocese as Director of the Catholic Migration and Refugee Office for the Diocese of Brooklyn from 1971 to 1983. Along with this position, from 1968 to 1980 he was professor of Canon Law at Immaculate Conception Seminary in Huntington, New York

Bishop Bevilacqua was ordained Auxiliary Bishop of the Diocese of Brooklyn on November 24, 1980. He has also chaired many Committees and was appointed to the Pontifical Commission on Migration and Tourism and participated in a fact-finding tour, visiting facilities in Southeast Asia for Cambodian Refugees

We, the Faculty, Students, and all who compose the Central Catholic community heartily welcome Bishop Anthony J. Bevilacqua to the Diocese of Pittsburgh as Her Tenth Bishop

Bishop Anthony J. Bevilacqua

Bishop Vincent M. Leonard

. . . AND FORMER BISHOP

Since his installation as Ordinary in 1969, Bishop Vincent Leonard has been a close friend to us at Central Catholic High School.

During his fourteen years as Bishop of the Diocese of Pittsburgh, his presence and support for the school was felt and enjoyed by the Administration, Faculty, and Students. From his approval of plant and academic plans to enrich the education of a central student, to celebrating the fiftieth Anniversary of Central Catholic, to the dedication of Alumni Hall, to celebrating with the Christian Brothers their 300th Anniversary, Bishop Leonard was very visible on and around the Campus.

With his retirement in 1983, Bishop Leonard still retains a visible presence to Central Catholic by saying Mass for the Students on their day of Recollection at Saint Paul's Seminary

For all the service you have given us in the past, present, and will continue to give in the future, we at Central Catholic High School thank you, and wish you many years of health and happiness, and hope you enjoy your well earned retirement.

BROTHER BENEDICT MCGOUGH, F.S.C.

I N M E M O R I A M

The Central Catholic community was saddened last February at the death of Brother Benedict McGough, F.C.S.

A member of the first graduating class of Central Catholic High School, Brother Benedict spent his remaining productive years with the same spirit of dedication and humor that he showed on this campus in 1931.

His 47 years as a Christian Brother took him to various schools throughout the Baltimore Province. Duties such as teaching literature, composition, prefecting delinquents, moderating numerous activities, and up until he dies, helping with the driver education road work, were all part of Brother Benedict's mission.

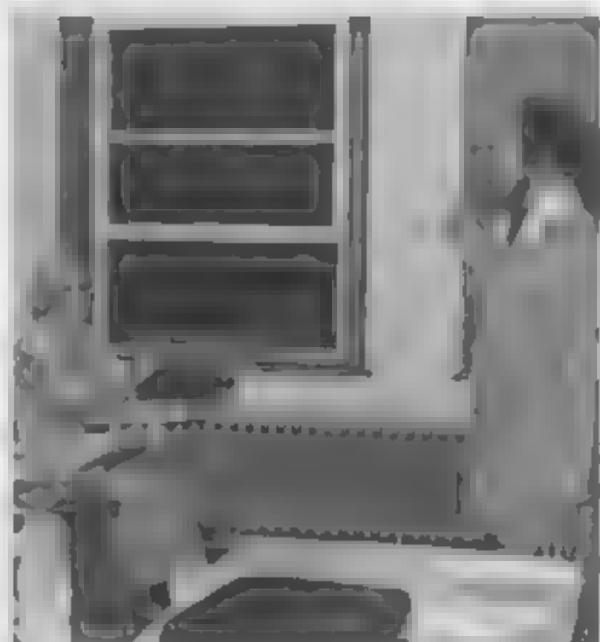

We thank God for the life he gave Brother Benedict to share with us, and know that he is now reaping the fruits of his many years of labor.

ROBERT E. LEE 1983 HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

Each year at the Honors Convocation, Central honors an alumnus who has demonstrated through his life and chosen career the goals that Central is trying to achieve as a Catholic High School.

The Alumnus inducted at the last Honors Convocation was Robert E. Lee, M.D.. He entered Central in 1944 and graduated in 1948. In 1952 he earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Chemistry and graduated Cum Laude from the University of Pittsburgh. He continued his education, earning his M.D. from Pitt's Medical School and was named to the Alpha Omega Honor Medical Fraternity.

Since 1957 he has been a teacher of Pathology at the University of Pittsburgh Medical School. He is also a Pathologist at Presbyterian University Hospital and has been Director of Laboratories for the past nine years.

He, along with his wife and six children are members of St. Bede's Parish. He has served as a member of the Parish Council and has been president of the council for the past two years.

HAT DAY

The day: November 3, 1983; the place Central Catholic High School; the event Hat Day, one of Central's many ever-enriched traditions. It begins just before first period when the hat bearing vocal masses pour into the school building. It continues on throughout the day as the halls reverberate with war-cries unheard of since the Apache Indians. Still it continues with a deranged crowd of hundreds roaring ferociously at the pep-rallie for a victory over the despised Trojans. And it ends at the North Catholic game with the screaming thousands chanting "Beat North! Beat North!" This is Central Catholic. This is Hat Day. This is our tradition

EDWARD B. KELLY IN MEMORIAM

From now on, blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." 'Yes' says the Spirit, "they are to have rest from their toils, for their deeds accompany them."

(Apoc. XIV:13)

In the summer of 1983, the Junior Class lost one of its students. Edward B. Kelly was a member of the class of 1985, was on the Track team, and a fine student. Though remembered by his friends as a rather quiet person, he was fun to be with and quite humorous on occasion. Edward had some good friends here at Central Catholic. Some of those relationships he made here, some from former years. And though God took Eddie very early, it is the firm belief of these friends that he lived a very good life. He was an exemplary young man to all of his peers.

It is certain that Edward is watching and listening happily to his friends and family remembering him. Still quiet, with a mild smile, giving a small nod of his approval.

The New Testament reminds us that Jesus had a fondness for children. He held a very special place for them in His heart. Edward is very happy.

BELOW: The heat of the moment RIGHT: The Prom king and queen and their court

RIGHT: Picture perfect
 BOTTOM LEFT: Let's put these two on top of a cake
 BOTTOM RIGHT: Always and forever

THE PROM: ONE SPECIAL EVENING

ABOVE: Prommers hit the dance floor
RIGHT: Rick Mewhirter and his date at the '83 prom

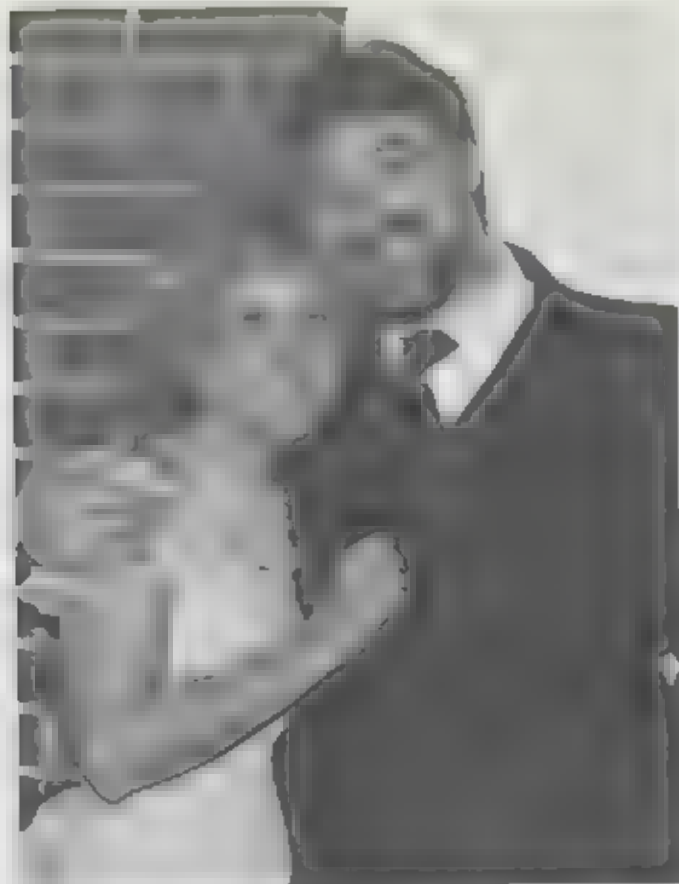

BELOW: These guys are ready for the Sears catalogue
LEFT: Our photographer was quick enough to catch these two for the society pages

BELOW: "Hey . . . when's the buffet line gonna' start movin'?"

MIDDLE RIGHT: "Table for four down front, please."

The prom is an event which juniors and seniors will cherish from now until a day, long from now, when they shall look back at these frozen moments to rekindle, and reflect on their fond memories of Central. Good luck in all your endeavors, large or small from the TOWERS

The Central Catholic graduating class of 1984 has, so far, continued Central's impeccable reputation and will undoubtedly take with them what they have recieved here and build upon it. "The direction in which education starts a man will determine his future life." It seems as if this statement was made with Central Catholic in mind. At Central the right direction is acheived; its a tradition. Central recievedes and prepares boys to go out into the world as responsible young men and contribute to society. If the present is any indication of what the future holds, the class of 1984 will carry on Central Catholic's tradition.

Athletically, led by the seniors of the class of 1984, Central has lived up to a tradition of excellence unequaled by most, if not all, other area high schools. The football team proudly represented the Viking name by rolling into the play-offs. Led by such seniors as heavily recruited Dave Sullivan and Terry Villella, Central compiled a respectable 5-3-3 record against one of the toughest schedules in the W.P.I.A. Not to be outdone by the heros of the grid iron, the conjurers of the hoop court produced a section championship and bids in the PIAA and WPIAL playoffs. Led by their team spirit and the great coaching of Chuck Crummie, the Vikings reached the semi-finals of the WPIAL tournament and the quarter-finals in the PIAA tourny not to mention a final number one WPIAL ranking. Viking pride does not stop there, many other athletic programs such as hockey, baseball, soccer, and cross-country had favorable showings. Most notably the cross-country; they carried the Viking roar of victory across the Appalachians to take third place in the state of Pennsylvania. The class of '84 truly lived up to Central's athletic tradition.

More importantly, though, the class of 1984 lived up to Central's "towering" tradition of academic excellence. Specific examples are not as readily at hand, but Central again produced students who are to go on to very selective Ivy League schools. Granted, not every member of the class of '84 will be studying at an Ivy League school in the fall, approximately 85% of the class is expected to go on to college. This is a phenominal amount compared to most schools. But, then again most schools do not compare to Central.

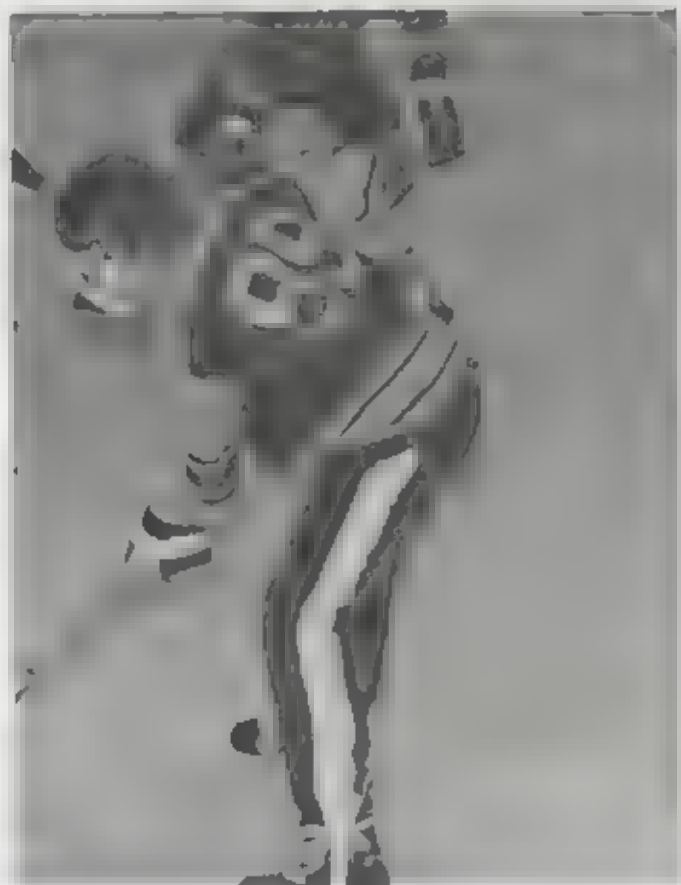

The class of '84 knows what a challenge it is to live up to this tradition. After four years have passed they have recognized the tradition of excellence and have lived up to it. Now it is their responsibility to use what they have recieved and continued to live up to the responsibility that they have taken upon themselves as a Central Catholic graduate.

 STRONGEST: Terry Viltella
 BIGGEST STUD: Tom O'Brien

As another school year draws to a hasty close, and another edition of the TOWERS has been put forth, I find this to be an appropriate time and place to make some reflective remarks on the past year; a year of so many highs and lows, achievements and setbacks, victories and defeats, joys and pains.

For the most part, 1984 proved to be quite a successful year. Under the leadership of our new principal, Brother Edward Sheehy, Central Catholic reached new heights of academic, extra-curricular, and community success. The selection of several upper-classmen for college scholarships is a direct reflection of the academic commitment for which Central is so reputed. Traditional affairs such as the Booster Drive, dances and Christmas Date Dance, intramurals, retreats, liturgies, assemblies, Hat Day, the list is virtually interminable, have all been great successes. On the community level, Central's involvement with the Canned Food Drive, home-room adoption of needy families for Christmas, and Blood Drive, were all acts of charity and altruism that gained Central Catholic much respect from the community.

I feel that much of the achievements of the past year have been the products of the rich tradition which is ever present in Central Catholic. A tradition which began over 57 years ago and has endured to this day, and shall continue to endure. Tradition, the theme of this year's TOWERS, is the glue which bonds Central's impeccable reputation together. It is a tradition which shall never die for it is inspired by God, and with His guidance we can look to the years ahead for continued success and recognition.

With this, I would like to thank those dedicated individuals for making this year a special one, and helped to make this tome of memories possible. To Mr. Jim Jackson and Josten's American Yearbook Company for their patience and guidance, Mr. Jim Evans of Hill's Studios for his outstanding photography, Brother William Hudson, moderator, for his tremendous amount of time and Patience; The 1984 TOWERS staff for working so enthusiastically and donating countless hours of labor; Joseph C. Cirelli, my coeditor for sharing the hefty workload with me; and of course, you, the students, faculty, and staff of Central Catholic High School for being so cooperative and supportive, and just being there, for Central is not a building, you are Central. To all those mentioned above, and those not mentioned here, your help has been deeply appreciated. I most sincerely thank you.
